MRS. PEGGY HUGHSTON
... Composer

Song Winning Acclaim

At the Pomona Fair today, thousands will have the opportunity of hearing "The California Song," composed by Mrs. Peggy Hughston, Torrance voice, piano, and organ instructor, with studios at 3706 Sepulveda. Words for the composition were written by Iris Brewster. At the fair, the song will be played by the Grey Line Band. The song was premiered at the Barn Theater's Hossar Party in Porterville recently. Another Hughston song "I Shall Not Live in Vain" was presented at the Porterville party by song stylist Alice Peterson.

Parish Leaders Gear For United Crusade

To prepare Catholic participation parish leaders for the 1968 United Crusade, which will begin in October, Mrs. Frederick Brierly of Torrance and Mrs. Jason Gale of Palos Verdes Estates gave a breakfast in Mrs. Gale's home at 10:30 a.m. Aug. 30.

During the morning meeting, the role each parish leader will assume during the fund-raising campaign was explained by Mrs. Gale. A filmstrip entitled "One in Three," which depicts the services provided by agencies of United Way and services of the American Red Cross, through funds raised by United Crusade, was shown.

Bumper stickers were distributed to the parish leaders. Plans were made for all workers to place the stickers on their cars the evening of Sept. 31, ready for the campaign to begin the next day.

Serving as parish leaders under Mrs. Gage and Mrs. Brierly are Mmes. Lon Mozchel, Fred Browers, Eugene Husting, Carol Rhodes, Michael Coleman, and Margaret Carroll of Gardena; Robert C. Perpall of Palos Verdes Peninsula; Matt Utovac and Michael Lacono of San Pedro; Orland Hansen of Torrance; H. C. Kersten of Lomita; and Vivian Soares of Wilmington.

Catholic Participation was also encouraged at a meeting at St. Catherine Labouré in Torrance Aug. 29. Members were familiarized with the purpose of United Crusade and the work of its agencies it supports. After the meeting, a parish team was recruited.

Heading the St. Catherine Labouré effort are Mmes. Jack Miles and Leo Weidenkopf.
